The President-Elect shall have such other powers and duties as the Board may determine. The President-Elect shall automatically succeed to the office of the President for the next calendar year.
Section 3: Secretary.
The Secretary shall be responsible for the preparation of a record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board and of any other business meetings of the Chapter. He/She shall be responsible for making all members aware of such meetings.

Section 4: Treasurer.
The Treasurer shall be responsible for the financial affairs of the Chapter including financial reports to the Board and arrangements for the annual audit of accounts after the selected auditor has been approved by the President. The Treasurer shall serve as chair to the Finance Committee to meet at least annually.

Section 5: Communications Director
The Communications Officer shall serve on the Board and shall be responsible for any and all website updating, and newsletter creation, and social media activity.

Section 6: Immediate Past President.
The Immediate Past President shall serve on the Board, shall chair the nominating committee and shall conduct regular Chapter meetings in the absence of all of the above-named officers.

Section 7: Vice President of Membership.
The Vice President of Membership shall serve as Chair of the Membership Committee. He/She shall encourage membership growth and shall maintain the official membership roster of the Chapter.

Section 8: Core Leadership Directors At-Large Board Members.
Each Core Leadership Director At-Large Board Member shall serve as Chair or participate in one LASHRM committee. He/She shall promote the views of the Chapter and actively market the Chapter to prospective members.

ARTICLE VIII - Elections and Balloting

Section 1: Nomination and Election Process.
Elections of Officers shall be conducted by ballot in accordance with the procedure outlined:

A.) A nominating committee shall be composed of the Immediate Past President as chairperson and no fewer than two other members of the Chapter.

B.) The nominating committee shall prepare and submit to the Board its list of nominees for the offices to be filled, by the August board meeting each year.

C.) The list of nominees will be prepared and ballots distributed to all voting members of the Chapter by September 15, due by September 30.
D.) Ballots shall be returned to the nominating committee in person, fax or by postal or electronic mail, or via electronic survey no later than the date designated on the ballot to be valid. Ballots will be counted by two individuals appointed by the President whose names do not appear in nomination for any office.

Section 2: Election Results.
A) Each Officer shall be elected on the basis of a plurality of votes cast for that office.

B.) In the event a tie occurs during an election involving two or more candidates for the same office who receive the same number of votes, successive balloting shall be conducted until one candidate receives a plurality.

C.) Chapter members shall be notified of election results by the end of the calendar year.

ARTICLE IX - Standing Committees

The chairpersons of the following standing committees shall be appointed by the President-Elect after he/she is elected, unless otherwise indicated. Appointment of the chairpersons is subject to the majority approval of the Board. The committee shall submit such reports as may be requested by the President. The chairperson of each committee is responsible for appointing his/her committee’s members.

Section 1: Program Committee.
A Program Committee of not fewer than three members, including the President-Elect, whose duties are to secure program topics and speakers for the Chapter’s regular monthly meetings. The Program Committee will meet at least twice per year and will solicit input from members on an ongoing basis.

Section 2: Nominating Committee.
A Nominating Committee, chaired by the immediate Past President of not fewer than two additional members, whose duties are as defined in Article VIII of the bylaws.

Section 3: Bylaws Committee.
The Bylaws Committee shall consist of a chairperson and not fewer than two other members. Their duties are to study and draft submissions for changes to the bylaws.

Section 4: Membership Committee.
The Membership Committee shall consist of the Vice President of Membership as Chairperson and not fewer than two other members. Their duties are to recruit, orient and maintain contact with new members. The President and Board may also call upon them for other duties related to membership satisfaction and services.

Section 5: Finance Committee
The Finance Committee shall consist of the Treasurer as Chairperson and not fewer than two other members. Their duties are to review the Chapter’s financial situation on a quarterly basis to make recommendations to the Board through the Treasurer at board meetings to determine where the funds are to be allocated.
Section 6: Other Committees.
Other committees may be appointed by the President as deemed necessary.

ARTICLE X — Amendments to the Bylaws

A copy of all amended bylaws shall be forwarded to SHRM before adoption.

Amendments to these bylaws may be made by a majority two-thirds vote of the members present at any Annual or Regular Meeting at which a quorum exists, provided written or electronic notice of proposed amendment or amendments be given to Members at least ten (10) days prior to the Meeting and provided that no such amendment shall be effective unless and until approved by the SHRM President/CEO or his/her designee as being in furtherance of the purposes of the SHRM and not in conflict with SHRM bylaws. Amendments may also be voted on electronically and passed with a quorum of the membership. Any motion to amend the bylaws shall clearly state that it is not effective unless and until approved by the SHRM President/CEO or his/her designee.

ARTICLE XI - Parliamentary Procedure

All parliamentary procedure shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order unless otherwise specified in these bylaws.

ARTICLE XII - Dissolution of Local Chapter

Section 1: Dissolution by Vote.
The La Crosse Area Society for Human Resource Management may be dissolved by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at any regular or special meeting, provided written notice has been given to all members at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting.

Section 2: Dissolution of Inactive Chapter.
If the Chapter has no Board of Director's meetings or other membership activities for a period of twelve (12) months, the Chapter will be considered inactive and may be dissolved using the following procedure:

A.) Any three (3) members of the last Board of Directors may initiate action to dissolve the Chapter by providing notice to former members of the intent to dissolve the Chapter. Acceptable notice shall consist of:

1.) A letter sent to each person listed as a Chapter member during the last year of operation, or

2.) A notice published in the La Crosse Tribune newspaper for a period of not fewer than three (3) days.
B.) A thirty (30) day waiting period shall be required following the official notice to members to allow members the opportunity to respond. If there is no response or if a majority of the members responding indicate a desire to dissolve the Chapter, the parties initiating the action may declare the Chapter dissolved by sending notice to, Society for Human Resource Management, 1800 Duke Street, Alexandria, VA 22314.

Section 3: Disbursement of Chapter Assets.
In the event of the chapter’s dissolution, the remaining monies in the Treasury, after chapter expenses have been paid, will be contributed to an organization decided upon by the Board of Directors at the time of dissolution (e.g. the SHRM Foundation, a local student chapter, the State Council, an HR degree program, or other such organization or charity with purposes consistent with those of the Chapter).

ARTICLE XIII – Withdrawal of Affiliated Chapter Status
Affiliated chapter status may be withdrawn by the President/CEO of SHRM or his/her designee as a representative of the SHRM Board of Directors upon finding that the activities of the Chapter are inconsistent with or contrary to the best interests of SHRM. Prior to withdrawal of such status, the Chapter shall have an opportunity to review a written statement of the reasons for such proposed withdrawal and an opportunity to provide the SHRM Board of Directors with a written response to such a proposal within a thirty (30) day period. In addition, when the Chapter fails to maintain the required affiliation standards as set forth by the SHRM Board of Directors, it is subject to immediate disaffiliation by SHRM. After withdrawal of Chapter status, the SHRM Board of Directors may cause a new Chapter to be created, or, with the consent of the President/CEO of SHRM and the consent of the body which has had Chapter status withdrawn, may re-confer Chapter status upon such body.

ARTICLE X IV– Ethical Standards
Section 1: SHRM Code of Ethics.
LASHRM adopts SHRM’s Code of Ethical and Professional Standards in Human Resource Management for the HR Profession for members of its Chapter in order to promote and maintain the highest standards among its members. Each member shall honor, respect, and support the purpose of this Chapter Association and SHRM.

LASHRM shall not be represented as advocating or endorsing any issue unless approved by the Board of Directors.

No member shall actively solicit business from any other member at Chapter Association meetings or through the use of information provided to him/her as a member of the Chapter Association without the approval from the Board of Directors.
Section 2: Pledge.
As a member of the La Crosse Area Society for Human Resource Management, I pledge to:

- Maintain the highest standards of professional and personal conduct.
- Strive for personal growth in the field of human resource management.
- Support SHRM’s goals and objectives for developing the human resource management profession.
- Improve public understanding of the role of human resource management.
- Instill in the public and other members a sense of confidence about my conduct and intentions.
- Uphold all laws and regulations relating to my activities.
- Refrain from using my official positions, either regular or volunteer, to secure special privilege, gain, or benefit for myself.
- Maintain the confidentiality of privileged information.
- Strive to make my employer profitable both in monetary terms and through the support and encouragement of effective employment practices.
