

Manager of GundU

Join our dynamic organization where our vision is to enhance the health and well-being of our communities, while enriching every life we touch, including patients, families, and staff. The Manager of GundU has provides the unique opportunity to work closely with organizational staff, leaders and providers through the corporate university, GundU. GundU provides: formal training infrastructure through LMS Administration, informal and formal content development including video, elearning, and other supporting materials. They will also maintain an internal website that serves staff, leaders and providers with a centralized hub for all learning and development, as well as HR related resources.

This position will have approximately 5 to 7 direct reports. They will work closely with Gundersen Health System's Director of Organizational Department to provide leadership in planning and organizing work, development of the strategic plan and focus, developing staff and improving processes for the work of the corporate university.

Education and Learning:

Required

Bachelor's degree in Organizational Development or Communications or a related field

Work Experience:

Required

1 year of leadership experience

Desired

1 year of training or education experience, LMS experience, content development experience and consultation experience

License and Certifications:

Desired

Certified Professional in Learning and Performance (CPLP)

Gundersen Health System is and Equal Opportunity Employer.